SELECT COMMITTEE ON THE MODERNIZATION OF CONGRESS

July 16, 2020

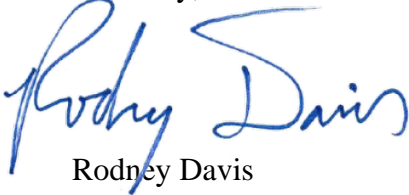

Dear Friends,

Americans often take our right to practice religion free from persecution for granted. It is important to remember that not all people live in a country with this freedom. It is our duty to stand with those persecuted in other countries. We must do all we can to protect this inalienable right for all people across the globe.

For two decades the Falun Gong practitioners have faced oppression in China. The Chinese government has used unjust political imprisonment, torture, and unconsented organ harvesting to wipe out the Falun Gong, a spiritual practice that emphasizes the tenets of truthfulness, compassion, and gentleness. During my time in Congress, I have strongly supported the Falun Gong practitioners and am proud to be supporting them once again today.

It took a tremendous amount of bravery for you to bring these persecutions of the Falun Gong to light. I applaud that bravery and all the work you have done so far. It is imperative that Congress, the State Department, and our institutions of learning work to understand the absolute necessity for advocacy of your plight and the persecutions of religious minorities everywhere.

Sincerely,

Rodney Davis

Member of Congress
